Omaha, Neb – Hand-picked by Billy Joel to play the “Piano Man” in Movin' Out, Michael Cavanaugh captured the New York City spotlight and won the hearts of audiences and critics alike. Now he brings his energetic, piano-driven brand of rock and roll to Omaha, performing with the Omaha Symphony January 31 at 8 p.m. at the Holland Performing Arts Center.

Cavanaugh will belt out his popular new arrangements of countless rock & roll hits. The concert will feature crowd favorites from Billy Joel, Elton John, the Beatles, Buddy Holly, and Elvis Presley.

During his three years and more than 1,200 performances as Movin' Out's leading man, Cavanaugh received rave reviews and both Tony and Grammy award nominations. Shortly after that success, he began touring across the country for events of all kinds. Cavanaugh has recently performed at the U.S. Open, the Indy 500, and at numerous corporate, private, and special events for organizations including Microsoft, G.E., the PGA, and many more.

*The Omaha Symphony is a non-profit organization that presents more than 200 live orchestral performances from September through May. In addition to MasterWorks, Symphony Pops, Symphony Rocks, Chamber, Discovery, Casual Classics, West "O" Casual Classics, and Family series concerts, the orchestra tours both Nebraska and Iowa providing education and community engagement concerts and special events.
