

Camille Metoyer Moten

A native of Omaha, and graduate of Xavier University of New Orleans, Camille has been singing and acting for 35 plus years. Often described as “Omaha’s most versatile singer” she is an independent singer/songwriter and performs for many special events as a guest soloist and also has her own pop/jazz band that performs for special events. She has presented her own Christmas concert as well as a Barbra Streisand tribute to audiences at the Omaha Community Playhouse.

Aside from singing Camille also has a love for theater. Her theater performance credits include starring roles in Ragtime, Evita, Funny Girl and Little Women to name a few. She has been a recipient of several awards including the Omaha Arts and Entertainment award, Theater Arts Guild and Fonda/McGuire awards. She was nominated as top jazz vocalist for 2015 and 2019 in the city and has been inducted into the Omaha Black Musicians Hall of Fame as well as the Nebraska Musician’s Hall of Fame. Guest solo appearances have included the Symphony, Ballet, Jazz on the Green, Governor’s Arts Ball and numerous galas. Camille feels blessed to be in constant demand musically. She has released three CD’s, Go Forward, Simpler Christmas and Classic: all available on iTunes and apple music.

Her music has enabled her to travel many places including trips to Spain and Germany as well as within the continental United States.

Camille is married with two adult children and one son of her son. Aside from her love of music and theater her first love is serving the Lord and she thanks Him continually for all the blessings in her life.
