

Kathy Tyree

Kathy Tyree, an Omaha native, has been a performing artist for forty plus years. Beginning acting and singing at the age of 15 Kathy has received numerous awards, impressive reviews, and accolades for lead roles in shows such as "Ain't Misbehavin", "Ella", "Beehive", "Sweat", "Hair Spray", "A Raisin in the Sun", and "Chicken & Biscuits" just to name a few. In 2019 Kathy was inducted into the Nebraska Music Hall of fame. Kathy is also an award-winning director whose most recent credits include "Three Little Birds", "Respect", "Dream Girls," "American Son," "The Color Purple," "Ain't Misbehavin", "Tell Martha Not to Moan", and "A Christmas Story". As a creative artist Kathy also serves as a leader in Equity, Diversity, Inclusion and Accessibility throughout Omaha. Kathy also performs as a concert vocalist and is honored and delighted to share the stage once again with her dear friend Camille Metoyer-Moten which never fails to result in a performance filled with joy, laughter, and an amazing music experience.
