

American Heritage Girls at the Omaha Symphony

Sunday, March 31, 2019

2:00 pm - Omaha Symphony Family Concert,
"Pirates AHOY!"

Ahoy, matey! All hands on deck to sail the Seven Seas in search of Blackbeard's treasure. Beware the notorious Captain Guerrero and his salty crew of scalawags who are also on the hunt and will stop nothing to get to the treasure first.
Also, come a little early starting at 1:15 for concert-themed lobby activities!

3:15 – 4:30 pm – Workshop

Led by Omaha Symphony Staff and an Omaha Symphony Musician, this fun and interactive workshop will explore the world of music. The workshop is provided at no cost! American Heritage Girls, chaperones, and other attendees must purchase concert tickets in order to participate.

All events take place at the Holland Performing Arts Center,
1200 Douglas St., Omaha, NE 68102

Program Costs:

Workshop is provided FREE of charge, but all American Heritage Girls, parents, and other attendees must purchase tickets to the Omaha Symphony's performance of "Pirates AHOY!".

Instructions and Information

American Heritage Girls at the Omaha Symphony is designed to provide an opportunity for participants and their families to experience a live concert and participate in a workshop with Omaha Symphony staff and musicians.

Through the concert experience, workshop, and a little work at home, “Music Appreciation” objectives will be met for the following AHG levels: Tenderheart \(Grades 1-3\) & Explorer \(Grades 4-6\)

Activities & objectives to be completed during AHG at the Omaha Symphony:

**Activities adapted in conjunction with “Music Appreciation” objectives listed below.**

- #1. Learn about how sounds are made, and create your own instrument(s).
- #2. Learn about the four families of instruments in an orchestra.

ACTIVITY “A”: Explore the Orchestra and How Music is Made.

Girls will be introduced to instruments from the different musical families of the orchestra and discuss how each family produces sound.

ACTIVITY “B”: Make an Instrument and Create a Performance.

Girls will make simple instruments and use these instruments to play a piece along with an Omaha Symphony musician.

- #3. Think about how your family uses music for celebration.
- #4. Choose a recorded song or piece to share, and discuss the music.
- #6. Notice and discuss how music is used in your daily activities.
- #7. Listen to two (2) versions of the same song, and compare/contrast them.

ACTIVITY “C”: Travel around the world of music. Girls will learn more about select composers and their music from a wide variety of genres and backgrounds, including two different takes on the same song!

Activities to be completed at home prior to attending (for Explorers, Grades 4-6):

- As a family, discuss proper concert etiquette prior to the concert, using the guide at the end of this packet. (Addresses Objective #8: Using correct concert etiquette can help you get the most out of a performance.)
- Keep a music journal for one week, noting and reflecting on all of the different uses of music in your daily life. (Addresses Objective #6: Keep a music journal for one week. Your notes can be used for discussion at the workshop!)
